

Voices and Choices

Cyber Friend or Foe?

What Parents and Teens Need to Know

Sunday, March 7
7:00 p.m.
Double Tree Hotel,
Tarrytown

FREE

for parents:

a panel discussion with

- Sharon Charles, LMSW; Coordinator WJCS Margaret's Place
- Andrea Fallick, Student Assistance Services
- Representative from the Westchester County District Attorney's Office

for teens: Are you FISH? LOL Get F2F IAG Play "Name That Text " with

- Elizabeth Miller, LMSW; Coordinator WJCS Margaret's Place
- Representative from the Westchester County District Attorney's Office

Host: Stephanie Ilgenfritz, Bureau Chief, Health & Science Group, Wall Street Journal

Raffle prizes courtesy of

The largest online games media
company

Explore the Internet in the age of social networking; cyber bullying, keeping safe online, learning to recognize a friend or family member in trouble, and hearing how you can help. This program is geared for middle and high school students, parents and educators.

For more information or to register call 914.366.7898.

www.jccontheudson.org facebook/jccontheudson

This program is presented free as a community service by: JCC on the Hudson B'Yachad Initiative, Rotary Club of the Tarrytowns, Westchester Jewish Community Services, Temple Beth Abraham, Woodlands Community Temple, Greenburgh Hebrew Center, Westchester Jewish Conference, Student Assistance Services, Westchester County District Attorney's Office, UJA-Federation of New York, and the Double Tree Hotel.